ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

2 Days - 1 Nights

The sample itinerary described below is approximately like the itinerary your group will be following during your stay with WHITE STAR TOURS. However, the exact times, days, and destinations may vary for your group.

Day 1 - Depart from and make a short travel to St. Louis, MO then meet your local guide to depart on a tour of St. Louis' Soulard Neighbor-hood, the city's oldest neighborhood and center for St. Louis- style Blues music. More than 30 music clubs, restaurants, and taverns are scattered among the red brick townhouses and ornate churches. Enjoy lunch on your own, then depart for a Tour of Anheuser-Busch Brewery for a closer look at the campus and brewing methods. Packed with history and stunning views of the property, you will learn all about the life of an Anheuser-Busch beer from seed to sip; from its beginnings as quality ingredients to its crisp taste as the finished product! Afterwards, visit the Clydesdale Paddock and Stables. The tour route continues through the Beechwood Aging Cellars, the historic Brewhouse, and the Bevo packaging facility. Next,visit the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame & Museum, one of the largest team-specific collections of artifacts and memorabilia in the world. The museum's seven galleries take you on a chronological journey through the rich history of the Cardinals. Learn about the birth of the franchise, relive special memories, and interact with the exhibits. Visit "TheChampionship Gallery" which celebrates the Cardinals' 11 World Series titles. Next, you will get acquainted with some of St. Louis' most favored sons and daughters on the St. Louis Walk of Fame in the Loop Neighborhood. This evening dinner will be at Blueberry Hill, a landmark restaurant and music club filled with pop culture memorabilia including Chuck Berry's guitar, and displays dedicated to The Beatles, Howdy Doody,and more. After dinner you will check-in to your hotel.

Day 2 - Following breakfast, check out of your hotel and depart for a visit to the Missouri History Museum which looks at the history of St. Louis from its founding in1764 up to the present day. Discover the city's baseball history from the Browns to the Cardinals, marvel at the magnitude of the 1904 World's Fair and much Music legends such as Chuck Berry, Scott Joplin, Miles Davis, Tina Turner and many others are honored with bronze stars in the sidewalk along the Walk of Fame. You will also enjoy free time for lunch on your own at one of the restaurants and for visiting the shops. This afternoon you will enjoy a tour of the Scott Joplin House. Known as the Father of Ragtime, Joplin spent some of his most productive years in St. Louis at the turn of the 20th century. The National Historic Landmark home is where the young pianist lived from 1900-1903. Later, you will depart for a visit to the Gateway Arch, the nation's tallest monument at 630 feet. The Gateway Arch commemorates Thomas Jefferson and St. Louis' role in the westward expansion of the United States; it has beckoned visitors for more than 40 years with its iconic, awe-inspiring shape which was the vision of renowned architect Eero Saarinen. This evening you will enjoy a dinner cruise aboard the Gateway Arch Riverboat with music and captivating views of the St. Louis skyline before departing for home.
